

Vets Offspring Should Check On Benefits

Sons or daughters of a veteran war casualty who turn 18 years old this summer will stop receiving federal pension or compensation checks unless they are planning to go to school in the fall.

Dill, Director of the Veterans Service Center, the Veterans Administration contributes to the support of a veteran's children if the veteran died due to military service or had compensable disabilities when he died—also if he is living, but more than 50 per cent disabled due to military service. This assistance ordinarily stops when a child reaches its 18th birthday, but continues until the age of 21 if the child is attending a VA-approved school or college.

Mrs. Dill explained, but evidence must be submitted to the VA that the child intends to return to school again.

Payments also cease when a child marries, regardless of its age or school status. Except for students, assistance beyond the age of 18 normally goes only to severely handicapped children.

Must Have Proof

Three months before a dependent child reaches its 18th birthday, Mrs. Dill said, the VA sends a letter explaining eligibility rules for further financial assistance. It is then up to the dependent to obtain a certificate from the school he plans to go to, showing that he will be accepted for enrollment.

"Incidentally," added Mrs. Dill, "don't overlook the added school benefits available from the State of California to wid-

Mexico beckoned to Mr. and Mrs. William Bergeron of 4614 Narrat St., whose aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. Doody of Chicago, and their mother, Mrs. Taillian, were vacationing in the Southland. All joined in the entourage to Mexico for a week of fun and frolic.

Those enjoying the "Four Poster" from our area were Mr. and Mrs. E. Carlstrom with guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kenneth Stainbrook, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arensmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. William Boell, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. R. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Atwell, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Daniels, and Miss Jane Collier.

Eating outdoors seems to make good food taste even better. With this in mind the Kahle Meyer family of seven packed their fishing gear into the family limousine and selected Rodriguez Dam in Tijuana as their camping site for an enjoyable week of fishing and sunning. Every member caught his fish limit and had their pictures taken.

Rarely has a betrothed two-ome been so widely feted at pre-nuptial events as were Isabelle McCabe and her fiancé, Mario Puglia, whose last shower was hosted by the ladies of the St. Catherine Labouré parish at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Sutton, 3743 W. 176th St.

Rheumatic fever combined with a case of pneumonia is not a happy experience. Best wishes for a speedy recovery are being extended to Paulette Jennings, of 4731 Cadison St., who has just returned from a sojourn at the California Lutheran Hospital. She would enjoy a card from any and everyone.

Small fry tears have now ceased flowing for little Cookie Sitze, of 4728 Cadison, who is now recuperating from a bad session with the measles.

One of the most pleasant and exciting afternoons in the month of June was spent at the home of Mrs. Glen Runsted, 18236 Roslin Ave., who hosted the "Queens Card Party." Mrs. Kenneth Hall was the winner of the bridge prize with Mrs. Paul Herring taking home booby prize. Mrs. Kenneth McVey carted home the canasta prize while Mrs. Erich Schuster won booby.

For information regarding an interesting, colorful and educational vacation in Meta, Mo., contact Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kling, of 4728 Cadison St., who have just returned.

Quaint, scenic Mexico offers quite a panoramic setting for vacation antics and has become quite popular. Many from this area are taking time out to venture towards that picturesque country. With guests from Boston visiting her, Mary Crockett, of 4520 Darion, decided also to go to Mexico.

Our sincere thanks to the persons sending cards inquiring about Baby Boo—our baby hawk. He is fine, completely feathered and most surprising of all, I am able to pick him up minus leather glove and feed him!

Lois Hubacek of 4735 Cadison, hosted a farewell party for Mrs. Warren Kerrigan who moved back to New Jersey. Neighbors who joined in to fete Norma and present her with a lovely blouse were Leona Adams, Virginia Sitze, Florence Milligan, Aretta Connell and Shirley Kling.

Virginia Kern, at FR 4-8311, has tickets to the fashion show which will be staged at Verburgs Dairy for the benefit of Boy Scout Troop 953. Refreshments will be served and there will be many door prizes awarded.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Willey Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Willey with children, Terry and Rita, of 3801 W. 176th St., have just returned from a glorious vacation with Mrs. Willey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnette in Stamford, Neb.

A pleasant evening amid pleasant surroundings was spent by the happy foursome, Enid Runsted, Sarah Hooker and Vera Wright at the home of Alice MacKenzie, 4332 W. 179th St.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Meier, 3822 W. 176th St., with youngsters, Dawnna, Patty and Jimmy spent many an enjoyable moment while vacationing in Eugene, Ore., and motored home through the Redwood forest. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Klambuder and family, who hosted the Meiers, are eagerly awaiting their return.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Carter of 3332 W. 188th St. have a new six pound, 14 ounce daughter, Cheryl Grace.

Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Bailey, have a new son, Claude Wayne, who weighed in at five pounds and eight ounces.

Returning to the community are Mr. and Mrs. Gene Craig, 4413 W. 182nd St., who just returned from a vacation trip to Washington.

Bonner Graduates from Transportation School
Pvt. Dennis Bonner, son of Mrs. Halle Russell, of 1535 W. 207th St., recently was graduated from the Army's Transportation School at Fort Eustis, VA. He entered the Army in January of this year and completed basic training at Fort Ord.
